

Better by the Year

Answers to Fair Trade quiz

- 1.
2. Coffee, tea, sugar, chocolate, bananas, fruit juice, honey, sports balls, wine, etc.
3. Coffee
4. Co-op, Divine, Dubble, Green & Black, Marks & Spencer Organic, etc.
5. Fairer World, Shared Earth, Oxfam, Starbucks, Pret a Manger, Sainsbury, M & S
6. Answer depends on where you live
7. Over 2000
8. M&S
9. Sainsbury, Waitrose
10. Roses and Sports balls. There is no Fairtrade mark for clothes. However there is a Fairtrade mark for clothing made of Fairtrade cotton. High Street shops such as H&M, M&S, Monsoon and Gap are members of the Ethical Trading Initiative which seeks to monitor supply chains better and reduce the number of sweatshops. There are many smaller ethical traders who have a close link with their suppliers in developing countries. Rugmark sells hand-made rugs and carpets which are guaranteed not to have used child labour.

11. All of these. The premium paid to producers is used to improve local services and the local environment.